

The Top Five Noxious Weeds in Weld County

Have you wondered what the top five noxious weeds are in Weld County? In terms of acres and the number of landowners dealing with these species they are Canada Thistle, Field Bindweed, Cheatgrass, Musk Thistle, and Scotch Thistle. The three thistles are designated as list B noxious weeds, meaning that they must be suppressed and prevented from going to seed. The other two species are list C noxious weeds. More information on each specific noxious weed can be found on the corresponding noxious weed list page.

Canada Thistle

Field Bindweed

Cheatgrass

Musk Thistle

Scotch Thistle

